Wants assay medal of 1892- & 1893.

256 west 52^d St
New York Dec 7 1893
Hon C. C. Borby shell,
Superintendent of the Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir,

Some time in Feb. or March, Mr Andrew Mason of the Assay Office in this city obtained for me an Assay medal of the present year.
Recently I showed it to a friend, who is a collector of Presidential heads or busts. He had never seen one, I said that the Assay medal of 1892-1893 both had the head of Harrison—He was very anxious to obtain one of both years—
Can you in any manner

see your way clear to help me out in this matter. I would be very happy to purchase if any were for sale —

It is some what unfortunate that these medals are not by law put on sale by the Government, for undoubtedly some in my collection are very beautiful,

If you cannot help me, could the Director of the mint, if he saw fit, do so,

Am I right in believing that only 20 or 25 are struck each year —

yours cordially
— H. P. Smith

Hon. O.C. Bosbyshell,
Superintendent of the Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir,

Sometime in Feb. or March, Mr. Andrew Mason of the Assay Office in this city obtained for me an Assay medal of the present year.

Recently I showed it to a friend, who is a collector of Presidential heads or busts. He had never seen one. I said that the Assay medal of 1892 – 1893 both had the head of Harrison – he was very anxious to have one of both years.

Can you in any manner see your way clear to help me out in this matter. I would be very happy to purchase if any were for sale.

It is some what unfortunate that these medals are not by law put on sale by the Government, for undoubtedly some in my collection are very beautiful.

If you cannot help me, could the Director of the mint, if he saw fit, do so.

Am I right in believing that only 20 or 25 are struck each year.

Yours Cordially,
